Registration Forms

The documents listed below are presented in three format types—Online, PDF (Portable Document Format), and RTF (Rich Text Format). It's your choice—feel free to use whichever you prefer.

The RTF files require a Word Processing Program or some type of Text Editor.

The PDF files require Adobe Acrobat Reader, which is free to download, simple to install, and is provided as a courtesy by Adobe. If you need to obtain the Adobe Acrobat Reader program, we have provided a direct link to the website: <http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep.html>. We do not endorse or support Adobe or any other products, and we have no affiliation with them or any other entity. Please read the policies concerning the downloading of their software before using their products.

Find a Meeting

Home > Find a Meeting

At present, we suggest the following three options:

Option #1: NA Helplines - This is our first and best recommendation for finding an NA meeting. Quick access to NA Helplines: <http://web.na.org/?ID=phonelines-phonelin-toc>

Option #2: Regional and Area Website Links Page - The information found at these local sites also has a high degree of accuracy.

Quick access to Regional and Area Links Page: <http://web.na.org/?ID=links-toc>

Option #3: NA Meeting Search – Our last recommendation is the NA Meeting Search below. One word of caution: oftentimes NA meetings change without our knowledge and these listings may not be accurate.

Quick Access to Meeting Search: <http://portaltools.na.org/portaltools/MeetingLoc>
